

LOREN DALE GOODRICH
By Carolyn Goodrich Miles

Loren Dale Goodrich was born 5 November 1931 in Bluebell, Duchesne, Utah, the son of John Goodrich and Rosezella Hancock.

Loren graduated from seminary and high school in 1950. He was drafted into the army in 1952 and served two years. He spent most of that time in Germany. While in the army he excelled in horseshoe playing and won the Battalion championship. He was on the pistol team and placed fifth place out of the Battalion.

After his discharge from the army he lived in Salt Lake City and drove truck, then moved back to Bluebell in 1956 and helped his dad on the farm. He was a scoutmaster for three years. He then moved back to Salt Lake and worked with heavy equipment and drove truck. In 1972 he moved back to Bluebell to be with his father and to help take care of him. He is now transporting oil from the Uintah Basin.
