

FRANK MERRELL GOODRICH OBITUARY

*Transcribed from the -Vernal Express, December 1, 1982 edition
By Rhonda Thacker Holton*

Frank Goodrich, 73, died November 27, 1982 of natural causes at the home of a daughter.

Born April 14, 1909 in Naples, a son of Albert G. and Lydia Merrell Goodrich. Married Lela Colton January 9, 1946 in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. Served in the military during World War II. Worked as a carpenter. Served a building mission in Australia for the LDS Church, 1956-1959, supervising the building of chapels.

Survived by his wife; daughter, Mrs. Reed (Sharon) Harris, West Jordan; son, Robert, West Valley; eight grandchildren; brothers, Albert M. and Carl Goodrich, sister, Ruth Goodrich, all of Moses Lake, Washington; brother, O'Donnel Goodrich, Provo. Preceded in death by an infant son.

Funeral services were Tuesday, November 30, at the Washington Terrace 7th Ward in Ogden. Interment will be in the Maeser Cemetery.

-Vernal Express, December 1, 1982

Return to Goodrich Family Organization Home Page