

MAUDE WOOLLEY GOODRICH OBITUARY

*Transcribed from the Vernal Express, Sept. 4, 2008 edition
By Rhonda Thacker Holton*

---

Maude Woolley Goodrich returned to her family in Heaven Aug. 29, 2008, from Murray Care Center, Murray, at age of 99-plus. Until the last few weeks of her life, Maude was still active and enjoyed a granddaughter and great-granddaughter each day at the home of her daughter, Anne Daugherty of Echo.

Maude was the daughter of Horace Wickersham Woolley and Annie Luella Bates. She was born May 13, 1909, in Vernal. The Woolleys moved to Vernal in 1898 from the Tooele area. She was the last remaining member of the family. She married Earl Byron Goodrich, June 9, 1932, in Manila, and their marriage was later solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple.

She has two living children: Anne Daugherty (Ted), Gwen Hollingworth (Graham); son-in-law, Eldon Winterton (Jean); foster son, Ricardo Trejo (Susan). She was preceded in death by her husband, Earl Byron Goodrich; daughter Gayle, daughter Jean; and her parents. Living descendants include 11 grandchildren, 29 great-grand children and 17 great-great-grandchildren.

A family viewing will be at the Glines First Ward Chapel, 2313 South 1500 East, Vernal, Thursday, Sept. 4 at 10 am. Graveside services will be held at the Vernal Memorial Park at 11 a.m. All are invited. For information, call Hullinger Mortuary in Roosevelt www.hullingermortuary.com

-Vernal Express, Sept. 4, 2008

Return to Goodrich Family Organization Home Page